

Somebody cares

Somebody cares, and I'm not alone anymore
Somebody cares, and He's the One, that I adore
He lifts me up, everyday, Now I see life in a whole new way.
Somebody cares.

Somebody cares, and I'm not a-shamed anymore,
Somebody cares, and He's the One I've been searching for.
I'm held by hope. I'm freed by faith.
He's shown me joy in the light of His grace.
Somebody cares, and His name is Jesus!

For those who are lost, when this hopeless World surrounds them,
When the doubters try to drown them,
There's a Hand to pull them through.
For One bore our cross, He wrapped our sin and shame around Him,
Thought it cost Him everything, He died for me,
And He died for you.

Somebody cares, and I'm not afraid anymore

Somebody cares, This love I've never known before.
It should have been me, I was to blame.
But He took my place and gave me His name.
Somebody cares,
Somebody cares,
Somebody cares,
And His name is Jesus,
Jesus.
His name is Jesus!
