

Like a mighty river

Sometimes I wonder why He loves me so
And why He cares so much for me
Why He came to walk this earth
And why He choose to die upon the tree.

Because His love shines
Like a morning sun
And His goodness flows like a mighty river
And it makes me strong
So I carry on
I know His love will bring me hope, one day

One day I meet Hem
Face to face
And I will be with Him fore ever more.
I'll be there together with the Lord.

Because His love shines
Like a morning sun
And His goodness flows like a mighty river.
And it makes me strong,
So I carry on
I know His love will bring me hope, one day.
